

God Is

Descriptions used by Emma Curtis Hopkins In High Mysticism

(Extracted by a Student – Name Unknown)

“It is the nature of man who faces the Countenance that Shineth as the Sun in His Strength, to shed forth beautiful descriptions that fit only
The Ever-Present Sun of Righteousness with Healing in His Wings.
And he who is full to the brim of his being with silent descriptions of the Lord of Glory
now looking toward us
sheds healing perfume, curative breaths, reviving elixirs through even his garments.”

Emma Curtis Hopkins

The One Presence in the Universe:

Therefore as I Am, I Am That One

“Seek ye My Face”

“Act as though I were, and thou shalt know I Am.”

“Wheresoever thou lookest, there is Allah”

Look unto Me

O, Thou I, and I Thou!

To be charged to overflowing with irresistible miracle-working while yet manifest in the flesh;
To be the radiance of buoyant joy
while yet walking among the sons of men;
To shed the perfume of healing and strengthening and illuminating,
while yet speaking with us and smiling upon us -
This is the final... ministry.

This is the bloom of full obedience to the Sacred Edict:

“Look unto Me.”

There is no warfare where the vision of God is.
There is no disease where the Healing Name is called.
There is no inadequacy or failure, while the Spirit of God is in the nostrils inbreathed as the Only Breath.
This is Living Truth!
